

OCTOBER 2026

TEACHING ARCHIVE

THE MONTH OF KNOWING
THE LORD

“THAT I MAY KNOW HIM”
PHILIPPIANS 3:10 (KJV)

REVELATION • FELLOWSHIP • TRANSFORMATION • KINGDOM EXPRESSION

ASK GLOBAL NETWORK
YEAR OF WHOLENESS — 2026

PREPARED BY

AMOS EHIDIAMHE
VISIONARY AND LEAD PASTOR
ASK GLOBAL NETWORK

OCTOBER 2026 TEACHING ARCHIVE

THE MONTH OF KNOWING THE LORD

ASK Global Network | Year of Wholeness 2026

HOW TO USE THIS TEACHING ARCHIVE

PURPOSE OF THIS ARCHIVE

The ASK Global Teaching Archive serves as the official theological and teaching resource for the Month of Knowing the Lord.

It provides the biblical foundation, teaching direction, theological framework, and spiritual emphasis for the various expressions of ASK Global throughout October.

This archive is intended for use by:

- ASK Global Prayer Platforms
- ASK Local Fellowships
- Global Fasting & Prayer Meetings
- Prayer Day for the Nations
- Pastors and Leaders
- Children's & Teen Fellowship — adapted
- Website Teaching Resources
- Leadership Development
- Future Discipleship Training

This archive is not merely a collection of teachings.

It is designed to help establish believers in a deeper knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ and to move them beyond merely knowing about His acts into a living awareness of who He is.

ASK GLOBAL IDENTITY

Before entering October's theme, we remember the identity that governs everything ASK Global does.

THE RISEN CHRIST — OUR CENTRE

Jesus Christ is the centre of ASK Global.

We believe the Christian faith is centred not merely on a historical Jesus who lived and died, but on Jesus Christ who died, rose again, is glorified, and is alive forevermore.

The resurrection is not simply an event we remember.

It is foundational to our faith, hope, identity, transformation, prayer, witness, and Kingdom life.

OUR MISSION

We bring people into a living awareness of the risen Christ and teach them to live from the power of His resurrection.

OUR VISION

To see people everywhere awakened to the risen Christ and transformed by the power of His resurrection.

This vision extends into:

Families.

Communities.

Cities.

Nations.

Generations.

OUR GOVERNING QUESTION

What does it mean to know Christ and live from the power of His resurrection?

Before ASK develops a teaching, prayer, book, programme, fellowship, resource, or initiative, we ask:

- What does this reveal about Christ?
- What does this mean for the believer in Christ?
- How does this help us live from His resurrection?
- How does this produce transformation?
- How does this help us make Christ known?

OUR CENTRAL MOVEMENT

Know Christ → Live from His resurrection → Be transformed → Make Him known.

THE QUESTION THIS MONTH ANSWERS

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO KNOW THE LORD?

The pursuit of October can be expressed in one cry:

“That I may know Him.”

Knowing the Lord is more than knowing information about God.

It is more than knowing His acts.

It is more than knowing His blessings.

It is more than knowing His power.

It is more than knowing His miracles.

It is the pursuit of the Lord Himself.

The purpose of this month is therefore to bring us into a deeper revelation of who the Lord is, especially as He has revealed Himself in Jesus Christ—the Son of God, the Christ, the Anointed One, the Lord, the King, the Master, the Judge, the Holy One, the Lion and the Lamb, the One who died and rose again, and the One who is alive forevermore.

THE ANSWER

TO KNOW THE LORD IS TO KNOW HIM AS HE HAS REVEALED HIMSELF IN JESUS CHRIST AND TO LIVE IN RESPONSE TO THAT REVELATION.

We seek to know:

His person.

His name.

His character.

His authority.

His Lordship.

His Kingdom.

His victory.

His resurrection.

His voice.

His ways.

And as revelation increases, our lives respond through:

faith, worship, obedience, holiness, fellowship, courage, service, and Kingdom expression.

This is consistent with ASK's established understanding that knowing Christ means more than information; it involves relationship, revelation, fellowship, faith, and conformity to Him.

MONTHLY THEME

OCTOBER — THE MONTH OF KNOWING THE LORD

THEME SCRIPTURE

Philippians 3:10 KJV

“That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.”

This verse gives October its deepest cry.

Paul does not say:

“That I may know His works.”

He says:

“That I may know Him.”

The person of Christ is the pursuit.

And knowing Him leads directly into:

“the power of His resurrection.”

Therefore, October continues the resurrection revelation that governs ASK.

SUPPORTING SCRIPTURES

Exodus 5:2 KJV

“And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD...”

Psalm 103:7 KJV

“He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.”

John 20:28 KJV

“And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.”

Romans 1:4 KJV

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.”

Romans 14:9 KJV

“For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”

Revelation 1:18 KJV

"I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen..."

INTRODUCTION

FROM KNOWING THE ACTS OF GOD TO KNOWING THE LORD

There is a profound difference between knowing what God does and knowing who God is.

Psalm 103:7 says:

“He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.”

Israel saw the acts.

Moses knew the ways.

This distinction matters.

A person can know that God heals without deeply knowing the Healer.

A person can know that God provides without deeply knowing the Provider.

A person can know that God delivers without deeply knowing the Deliverer.

A person can know the blessings of God without pursuing God Himself.

A person can know the power of God without knowing the Lord whose power it is.

October calls ASK beyond the knowledge of divine activity into the knowledge of the Lord Himself.

PHARAOH'S QUESTION

One of the most striking questions in Scripture is found in Exodus 5:2:

“Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice...?”

Pharaoh did not merely reject Moses.

He challenged the identity and authority of the LORD.

He essentially asked:

Who is this Lord?

October takes that question and turns it into a pursuit:

Who is the Lord?

I want to know Him.

Pharaoh's question was rooted in resistance.

Paul's cry was rooted in pursuit:

“That I may know him.”

The goal of October is that ASK will not merely speak about the Lord but will grow in revelation of the Lord.

WEEKLY MOVEMENT

The month will move through four major revelations:

WEEK ONE

THE LORD REVEALED

Who is Jesus Christ?

WEEK TWO

THE LORD WHO REIGNS

What does it mean that Jesus is Lord?

WEEK THREE

THE LORD WHO CONQUERED

What does the resurrection reveal about His Lordship and victory?

WEEK FOUR

KNOWING HIM AND LIVING BEFORE HIM

What does knowing the Lord produce in us?

OPENING DAYS — OCTOBER 1–4

THE CALL TO KNOW THE LORD

October opens with a special emphasis because October 1 is simultaneously:

- the first day of the month;
- our Global Fasting & Prayer Day;
- Prayer Day for the Nations;
- and the first Thursday of the month, including our Communion emphasis.

Therefore, the opening days establish the month's central cry:

THAT THE NATIONS MAY KNOW THE LORD.

The prayer burden is not merely that nations experience God's intervention.

It is that nations know the Lord.

The opening emphasis should therefore move through:

October 1 — The Nations Shall Know the Lord

October 2 — Who Is the Lord?

October 3 — That I May Know Him

October 4 — My Lord and My God

These opening days prepare the ASK family to enter the first full week of October with the right foundation:

We are not merely seeking God's acts.

We are seeking the Lord.

WEEK ONE

THE LORD REVEALED

Theme Scripture

Romans 1:4 KJV

“And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.”

WEEKLY FOCUS

The first question in knowing the Lord is:

Who is He?

We begin with the revelation of Jesus Christ.

He is:

The Son of God.

The Christ.

The Anointed One.

The Word made flesh.

The image of the invisible God.

The risen Lord.

The resurrection is particularly important because Romans 1:4 declares Jesus to be the Son of God with power according to the resurrection.

The resurrection does not mean Jesus began to be the Son of God at resurrection.

Rather, His resurrection brought His Sonship into powerful, public, undeniable manifestation.

The One who was crucified was vindicated by God.

The One who was rejected was raised.

The One who was condemned was declared with power.

The One who died is alive.

Therefore, we do not know Christ merely according to the flesh.

We know Him as the risen Son of God.

KEY TRUTHS

1. Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

His identity is not merely that of a teacher, prophet, or moral example.

He is the Son.

2. Jesus is the Christ.

He is God's Anointed One.

3. Jesus is the Word made flesh.

God has made Himself known in Christ.

4. Jesus is the image of the invisible God.

In Christ, we see the revelation of the Father.

5. The resurrection powerfully declares who Jesus is.

The empty tomb is not merely evidence that death failed.

It is revelation concerning who the risen One is.

LIVING THE TRUTH

We do not begin October by asking:

“What can Jesus do for me?”

We begin:

“Who is Jesus?”

And then:

“Let me know Him.”

WEEK TWO

THE LORD WHO REIGNS

Theme Scripture

Philippians 2:11 KJV

“And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

WEEKLY FOCUS

Knowing Christ means coming to terms with His Lordship.

Jesus is not merely the One who saves us.

He is Lord.

Lord means He possesses authority, rule, mastery, and rightful dominion.

The New Testament repeatedly places the title Lord upon Jesus.

Peter proclaimed:

“God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

— Acts 2:36

Romans 14:9 gives us another extraordinary connection:

Christ died.

Christ rose.

Christ lives.

“that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”

The resurrection therefore stands at the centre of the revelation of His Lordship.

KEY TRUTHS

1. Jesus is Lord.

His Lordship is not a metaphor.

It is a declaration of His authority.

2. Jesus is King.

He possesses royal authority.

3. Jesus is Master.

Our relationship with Him involves surrender and obedience.

4. Jesus is Judge.

The One who died and rose is appointed as the righteous Judge.

5. Jesus is Lord over all.

His Lordship is not restricted to church meetings.

He is Lord over life, death, history, nations, circumstances, and eternity.

6. Every knee will bow.

Philippians 2:10–11 establishes the universal recognition of His Lordship.

7. Every tongue will confess.

The final testimony of creation will be:

Jesus Christ is Lord.

LIVING THE TRUTH

Knowing Jesus as Lord changes how we live.

We do not merely ask:

“What do I want?”

We ask:

“What does my Lord desire?”

Lordship produces:

obedience.

reverence.

submission.

confidence.

worship.

WEEK THREE

THE LORD WHO CONQUERED

Theme Scripture

Revelation 1:18 KJV

"I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death."

WEEKLY FOCUS

This week takes us into the heart of the resurrection.

Jesus did not remain in the grave.

He conquered death.

He rose again.

He lives forevermore.

He holds the keys of hell and death.

Colossians 2:15 declares:

"And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it."

The resurrection reveals Christ as the victorious Lord.

THE RESURRECTION AND LORDSHIP

Romans 14:9 is especially important:

“For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”

Notice the movement:

Died.

Rose.

Revived.

Lord.

The resurrection is therefore inseparable from the proclamation:

Jesus Christ is Lord.

The risen Christ is not a defeated victim who somehow survived.

He is the victorious Lord.

KEY TRUTHS

1. Jesus conquered death.

Death could not retain Him.

2. Jesus conquered the grave.

The grave could not hold Him.

3. Jesus triumphed over hostile powers.

His victory is superior to every spiritual opposition.

4. Jesus holds the keys.

He possesses authority over hell and death.

5. The resurrection establishes our confidence.

We do not face life from the standpoint of a defeated Christ.

We live from the victory of the risen Lord.

6. His victory becomes our foundation.

We do not fight for a victory Christ has failed to obtain.

We live and minister from the victory He has accomplished.

LIVING THE TRUTH

When we know the risen Lord, fear loses its final authority.

We can face:

death without despair.

opposition without surrender.

darkness without hopelessness.

circumstances without abandoning faith.

Because:

He is alive forevermore.

WEEK FOUR

KNOWING HIM AND LIVING BEFORE HIM

Theme Scripture

Philippians 3:10 KJV

“That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection...”

WEEKLY FOCUS

The purpose of revelation is transformation.

Knowing the Lord is not merely theological accumulation.

It must become a way of life.

Paul's cry was not:

“That I may know more information.”

It was:

“That I may know Him.”

And knowing Him involves:

fellowship.

faith.

obedience.

worship.

conformity.

the power of His resurrection.

KNOWING HIS VOICE

Jesus said:

John 10:27 KJV

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.”

Knowing the Lord means learning to recognize His voice and follow Him.

The goal is not merely:

“God speaks.”

It is:

“I know His voice.”

KNOWING HIS WAYS

Psalm 103:7 reminds us:

“He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.”

Knowing His ways means developing spiritual understanding of His character, purposes, priorities, and dealings.

We begin to understand not merely:

What God does

but:

Why He does what He does and what His ways reveal about Him.

KNOWING HIM PRODUCES OBEDIENCE

Jesus said:

John 14:15 KJV

“If ye love me, keep my commandments.”

Knowledge that never produces obedience has not yet become mature knowledge.

As we know Him, we increasingly desire to walk in His ways.

KNOWING HIM PRODUCES WORSHIP

Thomas did not merely acquire information when he encountered the risen Christ.

He worshipped:

“My Lord and my God.”

John 20:28.

Revelation produces worship.

When we see who He is, our response changes.

KNOWING HIM PRODUCES TRANSFORMATION

The more clearly we see Christ, the more deeply our lives are shaped by Him.

This is consistent with ASK's mission: knowing Christ is intended to produce transformation, not merely information.

KNOWING HIM AND THE POWER OF HIS RESURRECTION

This is the summit of the month.

Paul did not separate:

“That I may know Him”

from:

“the power of His resurrection.”

For ASK, this is foundational.

The resurrection is not merely something we believe happened.

It is a reality from which we learn to live.

The ASK identity document describes the resurrection as the living reality from which believers are taught to live. Pasted markdown(1)

Therefore:

I know the risen Christ.

I live from the power of His resurrection.

I am being transformed by that reality.

I make Him known.

A MAJOR OCTOBER REVELATION

THE RESURRECTION REVEALS THE LORD

One of the deepest truths of this month is the connection between resurrection and Lordship.

Jesus was not raised merely so that His followers would know that life continues after death.

His resurrection declares something about Him.

Romans 1:4:

“And declared to be the Son of God with power... by the resurrection from the dead.”

Romans 14:9:

“For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”

The resurrection therefore gives powerful revelation concerning:

His Sonship.

His Lordship.

His victory.

His authority.

His eternal life.

This is why the resurrection is central to ASK's pursuit of knowing the Lord.

MY LORD AND MY GOD

Perhaps nowhere is the revelation of the risen Christ more personally expressed than in Thomas's confession.

Thomas had heard:

“The Lord is risen indeed.”

But he had not yet seen Him.

When Jesus appeared and gave Thomas the evidence he had demanded, Thomas responded:

“My Lord and my God.”

John 20:28.

This is more than a statement about doctrine.

It is a revelation of relationship.

Not merely:

The Lord.

But:

My Lord.

Not merely:

God.

But:

My God.

October should lead ASK toward this kind of personal revelation.

SEEING THE LORD

John 20:20 gives us another remarkable statement:

“Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.”

There is joy connected with seeing the risen Lord.

The disciples had experienced:

fear.

confusion.

grief.

uncertainty.

Then:

They saw the Lord.

And joy came.

This gives October another beautiful dimension:

THE JOY OF KNOWING THE LORD

The risen Christ is not merely our doctrine.

He is our joy.

THE RISEN LORD IS NOT A MEMORY

Revelation 1:17–18 gives us the testimony of the glorified Christ:

“Fear not; I am the first and the last:

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive
for evermore, Amen...”

This is the Christ ASK seeks to know.

Not merely:

Jesus who lived.

Not merely:

Jesus who died.

But:

Jesus who lives forevermore.

Therefore, October is not a return to the historical Jesus as though He were merely a figure of the past.

We know:

the risen Christ.

the living Christ.

the glorified Christ.

the reigning Christ.

the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE LORD, THE LION AND THE LAMB

Revelation 5 gives us one of Scripture's most magnificent revelations of Christ.

John hears:

“Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda...”

Then he sees:

“a Lamb as it had been slain.”

Revelation 5:5–6.

The Lion and the Lamb are one Christ.

He is:

Majestic.

Victorious.

Holy.

Powerful.

Sacrificial.

Worthy.

The One who conquered is the Lamb who was slain.

The One who reigns is the One who gave Himself.

The Lord's authority is inseparable from His holiness, love, sacrifice, and victory.

THE HOLY LORD

Revelation 4:8 declares:

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty...”

Knowing the Lord produces reverence.

The greater our revelation of His holiness, the less casually we treat His presence.

We do not merely want God's power.

We want to know the Holy Lord.

We do not merely seek His hand.

We seek His face.

We do not merely desire His gifts.

We desire Him.

THE LORD WHO IS KING

Jesus is not merely Lord privately.

He is King.

Revelation 19:16 declares:

“KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”

His Kingdom is not threatened by earthly kingdoms.

His authority is not dependent upon human recognition.

His reign does not begin when men acknowledge Him.

He is King.

And the day is coming when every knee will bow and every tongue confess.

THE LORDSHIP OF JESUS AND THE BELIEVER

If Jesus is Lord, then our response cannot be merely intellectual.

His Lordship calls forth:

TRUST

Because the Lord is sovereign.

OBEDIENCE

Because the Lord has authority.

WORSHIP

Because the Lord is worthy.

COURAGE

Because the Lord is victorious.

HOLINESS

Because the Lord is holy.

SURRENDER

Because the Lord owns our allegiance.

SERVICE

Because the Lord has given us an assignment.

KNOWING THE LORD CHANGES PRAYER

If we know God only through His acts, prayer can become:

“Lord, do something for me.”

But as revelation deepens, prayer becomes:

“Lord, reveal Yourself to me.”

“Let me know Your ways.”

“Let me know Christ.”

“Let me know the power of His resurrection.”

“Let my life express what I have come to know.”

This does not eliminate asking God for His intervention.

It changes the centre of prayer.

We seek the Giver, not merely His gifts.

We seek the Lord, not merely His hand.

KNOWING THE LORD AND MAKING HIM KNOWN

The pursuit does not terminate in us.

ASK's vision is to see people everywhere awakened to the risen Christ and transformed by the power of His resurrection.

Therefore:

We know Him so that He may be made known.

The revelation we receive becomes the message we carry.

The life we experience becomes the testimony we give.

The Christ we encounter becomes the Christ we proclaim.

This is where October connects directly with Kingdom Influence, one of ASK's core identity commitments.

THE MONTHLY SPIRITUAL MOVEMENT

October should therefore move us through this progression:

WHO IS THE LORD?

I SEE THE LORD.

I KNOW THE LORD.

I ACKNOWLEDGE THE LORD.

I BOW BEFORE THE LORD.

I LIVE FROM THE LORD'S VICTORY.

I MAKE THE LORD KNOWN.

And underneath the entire movement:

"THAT I MAY KNOW HIM."

WHAT OCTOBER SHOULD PRODUCE

By the end of October, we should not simply have accumulated more information about Jesus.

We should have a deeper:

REVELATION OF CHRIST

We know more clearly who He is.

AWARENESS OF THE RISEN LORD

We live with greater consciousness that He is alive.

RECOGNITION OF HIS LORDSHIP

We see Jesus as Lord over our lives and all things.

KNOWLEDGE OF HIS VICTORY

We understand the significance of His death and resurrection.

FELLOWSHIP WITH HIM

We pursue Him, hear His voice, follow Him, and walk with Him.

OBEDIENCE

We respond to His Lordship.

WORSHIP

We join heaven in declaring His worthiness.

TRANSFORMATION

The knowledge of Christ changes how we think and live.

WITNESS

We make the risen Lord known.

CONCLUSION

THAT I MAY KNOW HIM

October began with a question:

“Who is the LORD?”

And it ends with a pursuit:

“That I may know Him.”

We have seen that the Lord is not merely the One who performs acts.

He is the Lord Himself.

He is:

The Son of God.

The Christ.

The Anointed One.

The Word made flesh.

The Lord.

The King.

The Master.

The Judge.

The Holy One.

The Lion.

The Lamb.

The One who died.

The One who rose.

The One who conquered death.

The One who holds the keys of hell and death.

The One who is alive forevermore.

And He is:

MY LORD AND MY GOD.

This is why Philippians 3:10 becomes more than a theme verse.

It becomes our cry:

“That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection...”

The goal is not merely to know what the Lord has done.

We want to know the Lord.

Not merely His acts.

His ways.

Not merely His gifts.

His person.

Not merely His power.

His presence.

Not merely His historical work.

His living reality.

And as we know Him:

we live from His resurrection.

we are transformed by His life.

we become witnesses of His victory.

we make Him known.

That is the movement of ASK.

MONTHLY DECLARATION

I KNOW THE LORD

I know the Lord Jesus Christ.

I know Him as the Son of God.

I know Him as the Christ, the Anointed One.

I know Him as my Lord.

I know Him as my King.

I know Him as my Master.

I know Him as the Holy One.

I know Him as the Lion and the Lamb.

I know Him as the One who died and rose again.

I know Him as the One who is alive forevermore.

I know the power of His resurrection.

I live from the reality of His finished work.

I live under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

I hear His voice and follow Him.

I know His ways.

I walk in His truth.

I worship His holy name.

I am not merely acquainted with the acts of God; I pursue the knowledge of the Lord.

My heart is awakened to the risen Christ.

My faith is strengthened by His resurrection.

My life is being transformed by the knowledge of Christ.

I carry the revelation of the risen Lord into my family, my community, my city, my nation, and my generation.

I know Christ.

I live from His resurrection.

I am being transformed.

I make Him known.

And my deepest cry remains:

“That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection...”

In the mighty, matchless name of the Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen.

ASK CORE MINISTRY IDENTITY

Prayer is our DNA.

The Word of God is our Authority.

Transformation is our Goal.

The Valiant Spirit is our Culture.

Kingdom Influence is our Assignment.

And beneath them all:

THE RISEN CHRIST.

2026 — YEAR OF WHOLENESS

OCTOBER — MONTH OF KNOWING THE LORD

“THAT I MAY KNOW HIM.”